SEPTEMBER 5, 2010

“But now for a brief moment grace has been shown from Yahweh our God, to leave us an escaped remnant and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage. For we are slaves; yet in our bondage our God has not forsaken us, but has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia....”
 Ezra 9:8-9a

AFTER CHURCH...PICNIC!

After the services, we will have our “Labor Day Weekend Picnic!” Bring your picnic lunch and either blanket or lawn chair(s) and meet us at Edgewater’s Citizens’ Park (22nd & Benton St.) and enjoy a relaxing picnic! Frizbees, balls, and other “lawn games” are welcome!

The Ladies’ Bible Study will begin for the fall on Tuesday, September 14, at 9:00 am. For the first meeting, we will have a “Fellowship Brunch,” so plan to bring a “brunch entrée” to share. These studies have been very interesting and the fellowship has been sweet. The prayer times have been especially encouraging. Plan, now, to attend, if you can! Talk with Linda Kummer for more information!

Ten Questions to Ask to Turn a Conversation Toward the Gospel

Many Christians suffer with unnecessary fears about sharing their faith. Once they finally get a conversation turned to the subject of the Gospel, however, most believers find that they're able to manage quite well. Much of the time the biggest problem is simply moving a conversation from small talk to "big" talk, the biggest subject of all—the Gospel. Here's a list of questions that can help. Some of them aren't original with me, though I don't recall where years ago I first heard the ones I've borrowed. I've found that the last one opens more doors for the Gospel in the widest variety of situations.

1. When you die, if God says to you, "Why should I let you into Heaven?", what would you say? Are you interested in what the Bible says about your answer?
2. If you were to die tonight, where do you think you would spend eternity? Why? Are you interested in what the Bible says about this?
3. Do you think much about spiritual things?
4. How is God involved in your life?
5. How important is your faith to you?
6. What has been your most meaningful spiritual experience?
7. Do you find that your religious heritage answers your questions about life?
8. Do you have any kind of spiritual beliefs? If what you believe were not true, would you want to know it? Well, the Bible says . . .
9. To you, who is Jesus?
10. I often like to pray for people I meet; how can I pray for you?

From Larry Moyer:

"Has anyone ever taken a Bible and shown you how you can know that you have eternal life?" "May I?"
