What was the rich young ruler's problem? What was he "lacking."

He was guilty of the same sin as Paul...

COVETING!!!!

Bear Fruit For Death

What is the “death” Paul refers to?

Hendrickson says, “There was a time when I felt secure, under no conviction of sin. At that time the full implication of the law had not yet registered in my consciousness, had not yet become an unbearable burden upon my heart. I thought that morally and spiritually I was doing quite well.

But when the commandment came, that is, when it was brought home to me what the law really demanded (nothing less than that which is summarized in Mar 12:29-31), I realized what a great sinner I was. It was then that I died; that is, that was the end of me as a self-satisfied, self-secure person.

Harry Ironside says,: “In other words it is as though he said, “I was blissfully unconscious of my true moral condition before God as a sinner until the force of the commandment forbidding covetousness came home to me. I had not realized that evil desire was in itself sinful, providing the desire was not carried out. But the law made this manifest. I struggled to keep down all unlawful desire; but sin-an evil principle within-was too strong for repression. It circumvented me, deceived me, and so by violation of the commandment brought me consciously under sentence of death.” This is exactly what the law was intended to do, as he shows in the epistle to the Galatians as well as here

“So then, the Law is holy,
and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.”

Romans 7:12

“The Sin” used the Law,
which is holy and righteous and good,
to produce “death” in Saul of Tarsus!!

But it can never produce righteousness!!

Unsaved Saul of Tarsus could never achieve righteousness
by means of the Law!!

AND NEITHER COULD YOU!!!

through faith...!”
